OUR TERMS OF BUSINESS

Prior to the funeral taking place we ask that any third party (disbursement) costs are paid to us.

All balances are due within 30 days of the funeral date.

Any accounts not paid within 30 days of the funeral date may incur a 5% interest charge.

If the services of a debt collection agency are required, a further 15% will be added to the outstanding balance.

Charitable donations

The company may from time to time make donations to various good causes in the local area. These donations will be in some form of sponsorship, and we do not expect or require any recommendation for our support. Any donations amounting to more than £250 in any given year can be obtained from our office by request. These donations are not from collections at funeral services.
